

Massachusetts Department of Mental Health

Massachusetts Department of Public Health

PRESENTS

WORDS CAN WORK®
Knowing the issues, talking with kids.

Depression: True Stories* – A Town Meeting on Cape Cod
Screening of 25-minute film Depression: True Stories followed by expert panel and discussion about young people and depression

Cape Cod Community College – Tilden Arts Center

Wednesday, September 17, 2008

9 a.m. – 12 noon

Moderated by

Jeanne Blake, founder Words Can Work, Blake Works Inc.

Continental breakfast 9 a.m. Program begins promptly at 9:30

RSVP for this free event with your name and organization to Jane Evans:

508-564-9624 or jane.evans@dmh.state.ma.us

The first 300 organizations/individuals to RSVP will receive a complimentary package at the event which includes the DVD "Depression: True Stories" and the book Words Can Work: When Talking About Depression and Other Mental Health Disorders.

Educational materials provided by

Massachusetts Department of Mental Health

Massachusetts Department of Public Health

The Sidney R. Baer Jr. Foundation

3M Foundation

&

John W. Alden Trust